Contenders for our Country

SIGNERS OF THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

Signer #30: James Smith (1719-1806)

Pennsylvania. Age at signing: 57

Married: Eleanor (5 children)

Occupation: Lawyer, Manufacturer,
Professor of Religion

Quotes & Notes:

No one knows exactly when James Smith was born, except that it was around 1719 in Ireland. His parents moved to America when he was 10 years old, and James attended a school in nearby Philadelphia that was taught by Pastor Francis Alison.

"In those early days in America, when congregations were not large enough to be able to pay their pastors an adequate salary, nor require all of a pastor's time, it was common for a minister to 'keep school.' In most communities, he was the best educated man and so the man best equipped for teaching."

James therefore learned proficiency in Latin and Greek. He also studied surveying, and the law at his brother's office in Lancaster. He is admitted to the bar when he was 26 and soon set up practice in York, where he was the only resident lawyer in town.

A big thanks to all who helped with VBS at the Evans Chapel this week!

Servants from both Chapel and Church worked together to influence many children in the community this week for the Lord. Special thanks for Jen Musone for the vision and her year-round work in preparation. Great job everybody!
