"Proofs" from Mount of Transfiguration

The sudden appearance of Moses and Elijah, on the mount (Luke 9:30) settles many age-long questions -

First, on life after death. The appearance of these dead saints, very much alive, demonstrated that there is life after death.

Second, on reincarnation. Moses and Elijah appeared as individual persons. They were not reincarnated under other forms of creatures. There is nothing here of Hindu "karma," which supposedly issues in a nirvana of self-extinction by absorption into an impersonal Buddha.

Third, on recognition of saints. Moses was still recognized as Moses, and Elijah was still Elijah.

Fourth, on soul sleep. This disproves the theory of soul sleep, as both Moses and Elijah were alive consciously and in conversation.

Fifth, on glorified bodies. Moses and Elijah had bodies which could suddenly appear and disappear; similar in structure, height and appearance, yet different in texture. This gives us a glimpse of our future resurrected bodies.

Sixth, fellowship of saints. Moses and Elijah evidently enjoyed fellowship in heaven, as they talked with Christ.

Seventh, knowledge of earthy events. Moses and Elijah were apparently intelligently in touch with earth. They talked with Jesus of "His decease which He should accomplish at Jerusalem." They are absolutely joyful and forever satisfied in their glorified state.

Contenders for our Country

SIGNERS OF THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

James Wilson

Signer #32: James Wilson (1742-1798)

Pennsylvania. Age at signing: 33

Married: Rachel (6 children), Hannah (1 child)

Occupation: Lawyer

Quotes & Notes:

Wilson served in the Pennsylvania Convention which ratified the Constitution. He made a long speech in favor of its adoption and concluded his argument:

"If there are errors, it should be remembered, that the seeds of reformation are sown in the work itself, and the concurrence of two-thirds of the congress, may, at any time, introduce alterations and amendments... Regarding it, then, in every point of view, with a candid and disinterested mind, I am bold to assert, that it is the BEST FORM OF GOVERNMENT WHICH HAS EVER BEEN OFFERED TO THE WORLD."

Christ & Funerals

As a young man, DL Moody was called upon suddenly to preach a funeral sermon. He hunted all through the four gospels trying to find one of Christ's funeral sermons, but searched in vain. He found that Christ broke up every funeral He ever attended. Death could not exist where He was. When the dead heard His voice they sprang to life. Jesus said, I am the resurrection, and the life (John 11:25).

600-Year-Old Seed

A seed taken from a 600-year-old necklace in South America has germinated and grown into a plant. The seed was imprisoned in a nutshell, as part of a "rattle necklace" taken from a tomb in Santa Rosa de Tastil. The seed germinated in 1968 and has grown to six feet and flowered. Jesus said in John 12:24-25
"Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit. He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal."
Don't "abide alone!" Die to self and come back to life and be fruitful.
