Charles Spurgeon

Quotes & Notes:

As a governor, he was known for his correctness and integrity, for dignity and simplicity. He zealously defended religion, and made the following recommendation to the general assembly:

"It is far from our intention to embarrass your deliberations with a variety of objects; but we cannot pass over matters of so high concernment as religion and learning. The sufferings of the ministers of the gospel of all denominations, during the war, have been very considerable; and the perseverance and firmness of those, who discharged their sacred functions under many discouraging circumstances, claim our acknowledgments and thanks."

He was a pure and active patriot, a consistent Christian, and a valuable citizen, in every sense of the word. His death was mourned as a public calamity; and his life, pure and spotless, active and useful, exhibited a bright exemplar for the imitation of the young men of America.

Pastor & Mrs Kohl are on a short vacation this week (Mon-Sat) to Wyoming and Colorado. Pastor Seth will speak on Wednesday, and Bud Golata will speak on Thursday. Pray for the Kohls and these speakers.
