Contenders for our Country

SIGNERS OF THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

Wm Hooper

Signer #48: William Hooper (1742-1790)

North Carolina. Age at signing: 48

Occupation: Lawyer

Married: Anne (3 children)

Quotes & Notes:

William Hooper was born in Boston, Massachusetts in 1742, the son of a Congregationalist clergyman. He studied for the ministry, beginning with seven years of preparatory education at Boston Latin School. In 1757, he was able to enter Harvard in the sophomore class, at the age of 15. Upon graduating at age 18, he began the study of law under James Otis, the Boston lawyer who coined the slogan, "Taxation without representation is tyranny." Mr. Otis had great influence on young Hooper.

When the British evacuated, Hooper returned to discover most of his property in ruins. He rejoined his wife and family, who had fled to Hillsboro, which he made his home for the rest of his life. The hardships of war and the toll of malaria caused his health to decline. He died in 1790, at the age of only 48.

Our Eyes Affect our Hearts

Dr. Bernardo saw a ragged urchin on the street, talked with him about his life and learned that he had no home but slept with other urchins as ragged as himself upon the roof of a building.

The doctor went with him to the sleeping place, learned the condition of those struggling waifs, and the result was the establishment of the great Bernardo Home. Looking after the one little boy was commonplace enough, but it led to one of the greatest philanthropies of the age.

Lamentations 3:51a

Thanksgiving Lady

Thanksgiving might not be celebrated in the United State today, were it not for a patient, persistent woman named Sarah Hale.

In 1828, Mrs. Hale, the editor of the magazine Godey's Lady's Book and author of the poem "Mary Had a Little Lamb," began campaigning for the restoration of Thanksgiving as a national holiday.

She wrote letters and sought appointments with national leaders from the Presidents down. Time after time she was politely rebuffed, sometimes being told it was "impossible" and "impractical," and sometimes being dismissed with a this-is-none-of-your-business scolding.

Finally in 1863 President Lincoln listened seriously to her plea the North and South "lay aside enmities and strife on (Thanksgiving) Day." He proclaimed the fourth Thursday of November to be the official "National Thanksgiving Day." This day was finally ratified by the U.S. Congress in 1941.
