A verse to live by in 2016

*"So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom."
3 John 1:2*

Another Year is dawning,
A path unknown, untried.
T'would fill me with foreboding,
Had I no hand to guide;

But He who walked beside me
All through the yesteryear,
Whatever may betide me,
Has promised to be near.

Another year with Jesus!
Ah, then, no dread I know
His love is ever precious,
Howe'er the winds may blow.

E'en when the storm is fiercest,
In him my soul may rest,
And find sweet peace and comfort
Upon his loving breast.

Another year to trust him-
Yes, I can trust him still,
Who never yet has failed me
And I have sought His will.

His rod and staff he giveth
To be my strength and stay;
And tenderly he leadeth
Along the homeward way.

Another year to serve Him;
To labor for Him here,
E'en when the shadows lengthen
and night is drawing near.

I know not when He'll call me
To lay my sickle by
Oh, may I then be faithful
While now the moments fly!

Another year to love Him,
Whom I have loved so long;
Another year to praise Him
In glad, triumphant song.

Whate'er the future holdeth
Of sorrow, toil or pain
His precious love endureth forevermore the same.

Another year with Jesus!
I thank Thee, Lord, today
For Thy unfailing presence
Along life's rugged way.

Guide me, O blest Redeemer;
Teach me to do Thy will,
And thine own perfect purpose
In me each day fulfill.

Contenders for our Country

(1749-1800)

South Carolina. Age at signing: 26

Occupation: Lawyer, Planter

Quotes & Notes:

Edward Rutledge and Thomas Lynch were the youngest signers of the Declaration. Both were 26.

Edward (Ned) returned home in late 1776 to help defend his state. He became a captain in an artillery battalion. When the British seized Charleston in the spring of 1780, Rutledge was among the first captives. He was imprisoned in St. Augustine, Florida, were "dangerous" rebels were held. He was released about a year later in a prisoner exchange.

A New Year's Wish for you all!
