Contenders for our Country

SIGNERS OF THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

Button Gwinnett

Signer #53: Button Gwinnett (1735-1777)

Georgia. Age at signing: 41

Occupation: Merchant, Planter

Married: Anne (3 children)

Quotes & Notes:

Gwinnett was the second signer to die at the young age of 42. Sadly, he died in an angry duel.

He was about six feet in height, lofty, and commanding. Without possessing remarkable eloquence, his language was mild and persuasive. His manners were polite, his deportment graceful. Sadly, he was impatient, and of an irritable temper. He left a widow and several children, who did not long survive him.

A New Year's Wish for you all!

"Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth." 3 John 1:2

Battle Lost, Time for Another

A Marshall once rode up to Napoleon the Great and said, "General, I fear the battle is lost." Napoleon coolly looked at his watch and replied, "Time for another battle. Summon the army to a fresh charge."

Did you lose the battle last year? Start another one this year! "Fight the good fight of faith...." (1 Timothy 6:12)
