October is stewardship month. A time when each of us should examine the stewardship of our time, talents and treasures. How are you doing? We will give an account of our stewardship - see Luke 16:2. Did you have a good year? This month is a time to evaluate and start over if needed.

Christ Has no Hands But Ours

Christ has no hands but our hands
To do his work today;
He has no feet but our feet
To lead men in His way;

He has no tongue but our tongues
To tell men how He died;
He has no help but our help
To bring them to His side.

We are the only Bible
The careless world will read;
We are the sinner's Gospel,
We are the scoffer's creed;

We are the Lord's last message
Written in deed and word-
What if the line is crooked?
What if the type is blurred?

What if our hands are busy
With other work than His?
What if our feet are walking
Where sin's allurements is?

What if our tongues are speaking
Of things His lips would spurn?
How can we hope to help Him
Unless from him we learn?

Shuck Gave Himself As An Offering

Young John Lewis Shuck attended a missionary meeting in a church. A collection was taken and was counted at once.
In it was a card. The pastor read it: "Myself" signed by John L. Shuck. He gave himself and became the first Baptist missionary appointed to China, sailing for Hong Kong and Macau in 1835
