Every year George Moore wrote these words in his pocketbook.

They became engraved on his soul, and to an extent formed his creed.

"What I spent I had:
What I saved I lost:
What I gave I have:"

2 Corinthians 8:12 Illustrated

Soviet Pastor Richard Wurmbrand, the author of Tortured for Christ, suffered terribly for the Lord. Yet he said that even while in prison, he saw fellow Soviet believers practice generous giving. "When we were given one slice of bread a week and dirty soup every day, we decided we would faithfully 'tithe' even that. Every tenth week we took the slice of bread and gave it to the weaker brethren as our 'tithe' to the Master."

Smile

I like the story about the church that was having a problem meeting its budget. The pastor suggested to the board that a special fund be established, and he recommended that the leaders set a good example by being the first to contribute to it.

As he made the suggestion, he looked straight into the eyes of one of the wealthiest, but also one of the stingiest, men in the church. The man hesitated. Then said rather grudgingly, "I'll give $25.00." Just then a small piece of plaster fell from the ceiling and hit him on the head. "I'll make that $50.00," he quickly declared. At that point, someone was overhead praying, "Hit him again, Lord. Hit him again."

October's Verse on

Humility

"LORD, thou hast heard the desire of the humble: thou wilt prepare their heart, thou wilt cause thine ear to hear:"
(Psalm 10:17)

The Church Treasurer Resigns

The day the church treasurer resigned the church asked the local grain elevator manager to take the position. He agreed under two conditions.

1. That no treasurer's report would be given for the first year.
2. That no questions be asked about finances during that year.

The people were surprised but finally agreed since most of them did business with him and he was a trusted man.

At the end of the year he gave this report:

- The church indebtedness of $228,000 had been paid.
- The minister's salary had been increased by 8%
- The Cooperative Program gifts had been paid 200%
- There were no outstanding bills.
- And there was a cash balance of $11,252!

Immediately the shocked congregation asked, "How did you do it? Where did the money come from?"

He quietly answered: "Most of you bring your grain to my elevator. Throughout the year I simply withheld ten percent on your behalf and gave it to the church in your name. You didn't even miss it!"

"Do you see what we could do for the Lord if we were all willing to give at least the tithe to God, who really owns it?"

And so the new treasurer had made his point.

"Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him...." (1 Cor. 16:1)
