The Legend Of Valentine

According to legend, the valentine takes its name from a young Christian who once lived in ancient Rome. Like so many of the early Christians, Valentine had been imprisoned because of his faith. Often and longingly he thought of his loved ones, and wanted to assure them of his well-being and his love.

Beyond his cell window, grew a cluster of violets. He picked some heart-shaped leaves and pierced them to spell the words, "Remember your Valentine," then sent them off by a friendly dove.

But on the next day and the next, he sent more messages that simply said, "I love you." Thus did the valentine have its beginning

What Is Love?

It's silence when your words would hurt.
It's patience when your neighbor's curt.
It's deafness when the scandal flows.
It's thoughtfulness for another's woes.
It's promptness when stern duty calls.
It's courage when misfortune falls.

Purpose of Marriage

"The goal of our life should not be to find joy in marriage, but to bring more love and truth into the world. We marry to assist each other in this task. The most selfish and hateful life of all is that of two beings who unite in order to enjoy life. Their highest calling is that of the man who has dedicated his life to serving God and doing good, and who unites with a woman in order to further that purpose." -Leo Tolstoy, in a letter to his son
