A Thanksgiving Offering

The parents of a young man who was killed in World War I gave their church a check for two hundred dollars as a memorial to their loved one. When the presentation was made, another war mother whispered to her husband, "Let us give the same for our boy." The father said, "Why, what are you talking about? Our boy didn't lose his life." The mother said, "That's just the point. Let us give it because he didn't."

"My Grace Is Sufficient for Thee"

Charles Spurgeon told this story: "The other evening I was riding home after a heavy day's work. I felt very wearied, and sore distressed, when swiftly, and suddenly as a lightning flash, that text came to me: 'My grace is sufficient for thee.' I reached home and looked it up in the original, and at last it came to me in this way, 'My grace is sufficient for thee,' and I said, 'I should think it is, Lord,' and burst out laughing. I never fully understood what the holy laughter of Abraham was till then. It seemed to make unbelief so absurd.

It was as though some little fish, being very thirsty, was troubled about drinking the river dry, and the river Thames said, 'Drink away, little fish; my stream is sufficient for thee.'

Or it seemed of a mouse, fearing it might die of famine; and Joseph might say, 'Cheer up, little mouse, my granaries are sufficient for thee.'

Again, I imagined a man away up yonder, in a lofty mountain saying to himself, 'I breathe so many cubic feet of air each year, I fear I shall exhaust the oxygen in the atmosphere,' but the earth might say, 'Breathe away, O man, and fill thy lungs ever; my atmosphere is sufficient for thee.'

"Oh, brethren, be great believers! Little faith will bring your souls to heaven, but great faith will bring heaven to your souls."
