Thankful for Old-Fashioned Mother

She was just an old-fashioned mother,
She did not pretend to be "smart."
To care for her home and her dear ones
Was the wish that was first in her heart.

We were raised by the old-fashioned rules,
So sparsely employed today.
And when we so richly deserved it,
We were spanked in the old-fashioned way.

She believed in the old-fashioned Bible,
She trusted in old-fashioned prayer;
She told us that Jesus would hear us
If we'd speak any time anywhere

Thank God for an old-fashioned mother,
For the Bible and old-fashioned prayer;
For the old-fashioned faith that is looking
For our Lord to appear in the air.

The Will of Henry Heinz

When the will of Henry J. Heinz, wealthy distributor of the famous "57 Varieties" line, was read it was found to contain the following confession:

"Looking forward to the time when my earthly career will end, I desire to set forth at the very beginning of this will, as the most important item in it a confession of my faith in Jesus Christ as my Savior. I also desire to bear witness to the fact that throughout my life, in which there were unusual joys and sorrows, I have been wonderfully sustained by my faith in God through Jesus Christ. This legacy was left me by my consecrated mother, a woman of strong faith, and to it I attribute any success I have attained."
