Two men were passing through a country field when they were charged by a bull. They started for the nearest fence, but it was soon apparent that they would not make it. One said to the other, "Put up a prayer, John. We're in for it!" But John answered, "I can't! I never made a public prayer in my life!"

"But you must," said his companion, "The bull will soon be upon us. Pray, John, and pray quickly!"

Said John, "I'll give you the only prayer I know - the one my father used to repeat at the table: 'O Lord, for what we are about to receive, make us truly thankful!'"
