Philippians 3:13-14

¹³ Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before,

¹⁴ I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

Check the boxes for each day that you say this week's memory verses:

Newspaper Prayer Lists

My grandmother had prayed first thing in the morning ever since she was a girl. But recently she had been reading the newspaper first. I asked her if prayer had become less important to her.

"Oh no," she said, "I'm just looking to see what I should pray about."
 - Bruce Johnson

Verses for Grandparents

Isaiah 46:4, "And even to your old age I am he; and even to hoar hairs will I carry you: I have made, and I will bear; even I will carry, and will deliver you."

Psalms 92:13-14, "Those that be planted in the house of the LORD shall flourish in the courts of our God. They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and flourishing;"

Psalms 71:18, "Now also when I am old and grayheaded, O God, forsake me not; until I have shewed thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to every one that is to come."

2 Timothy 1:5, "When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also."

Proverbs 13:22 "A good man leaveth an inheritance to his children's children: and the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just."

Toothaches and Grandmas

A young girl was crying over her toothache. Her Grandma playfully chided her for crying over such a small thing.

The girl replied, "It's easy for you to say that. When your tooth aches, you can take them out. When mine hurt, they must be pulled out!"
