Moving Mountains

I have never moved a mountain
 And I guess I never will;
 All the faith that I could muster
 Wouldn't move a small ant hill;

Yet, I'll tell You, Lord, I'm grateful
 For the priv'lege knowing Thee,
 And for all the mountain-moving
 Down through life You've done for me.

When I needed grace to lift me
 From the depths of deep despair,
 And when burdens, pain, and sorrow
 Have been more than I could bear;

You have always been my Helper
 To restore life's troubled sea,
 And to move these little mountains
 That have looked so big to me.

Many times when I've had problems
 And when bills I've had to pay,
 And the worries and the heartaches
 Just kept mounting every day;

Lord, I don't know how You did it,
 Can't explain the where's or why's,
 I just know I've seen these mountains
 Turn to blessings in disguise.

And as long as there are mountains
 In my life I'll have no fear,
 For the mountain-moving Jesus -
 He shall make them disappear.

All instrumentalists, take this verse to heart: "It came even to pass, as the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the Lord; and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of musick, and praised the Lord, saying, For he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever: that then the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of the Lord;" (2 Chronicles 5:13)
