On Courage

"We are so utterly ordinary, so commonplace, while we profess to know a Power the twentieth century does not reckon with. But we are harmless, and therefore unharmed. We are spiritual pacifists, non-militants, conscientious objectors in this battle-to-the-death with principalities and powers in high places.

"Meekness must be had for contact with men, but brash, outspoken boldness is required to take part in the comradeship of the Cross. The world cannot hate us if we are too much like its own. Oh that God would make us dangerous!" - Jim Eliot
