A story is told of a preacher who lived back when traveling preachers were entertained at hotels free of charge. This particular man was put up at a hotel for a few days, where he was most hospitably entertained, but as he was leaving he was much surprised to be presented with his bill.

"Why," he said, "I thought preachers were entertained for free."

"Well," said the innkeeper, "you came and ate your meals without asking the blessing; no one has ever seen you with a Bible; you smoked big cigars, and while you were here you talked about everything but religion. Pray how were we to know that you were a preacher? You lived like a sinner, so now you will have to pay with the sinners."

"While just government protects all in their religious rites, true religion affords government surely its support"

- George Washington

2020 Theme Prayer:

Lead me to some soul today, O teach me, Lord, just what to say;
 Friends of mine are lost in sin, and cannot find their way.
 Few there are who seem to care, and few there are who pray;
 Melt my heart and fill my life - give me one soul today!

- William Houghton

Charles Spurgeon's
 Commentary on I Peter 5:6
"Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God."

Pride is so natural to fallen human beings that it springs up in the heart like weeds in a watered garden. We may hunt down this fox and think we have destroyed it, but our exultation is pride.

None have more pride than those who dream that they have none. Pride is a sin with a thousand lives and a thousand shapes. By perpetual change it escapes capture. Therefore, let us humble ourselves under the hand of God as creatures under the hand of the Creator, as chastened children under a father's rod.

Many people have been humbled, and yet they have not become humble. There is a great difference between the two things. If God withdraws his grace and allows a Christian to fall into sin, that fall humbles him in the sight of people, and yet he may not be humble. He may never have a true sense of how evil his action has been. He may still persevere in his pride and be far from humility.

The most hopeful way of avoiding with humbling affliction is to humble ourselves. Let us be humble that we may not be humbled.

30 Facets of Love

Biblical love is like a many-faceted diamond. Some of the facets that are described in Scripture include:

From 1 Corinthians 13:

- 7. Love is pure - v.5 - there is nothing improper or perverted in love.
- 8. Love is unselfish - v.5 - not self-centered. Living for the benefit of others.
- 9. Love is peaceful - v.5 - not angered easily.
