Truly Thankful

From the autobiography of the late Dr. Clarence E. Macartney, prominent Presbyterian pastor and author, we share the following humorous tale.

Two men were passing through a field in the country when they were charged by a bull. They started for the nearest fence; but it was soon apparent that they could not make it before the bull would be upon them. One said to the other, "Put up a prayer, John. We're in for it!"

But John answered, "I can't. I have never made a public prayer in my life." "But you must," said his companion, "the bull will soon be upon us. Pray, John, and pray quickly!"

"All right," said John, "I'll give you the only prayer I know, the one my father used to repeat at the table: 'O Lord, for what we are about to receive, make us truly thankful.'"

In the circumstances of life—whether it be an uplift or an upset, can we truly say, "Lord, I am thankful"?

Well Adjusted

Bud Robinson, known as the "Holiness preacher", was taken by friends to New York City and shown around. That night in his prayers he said, "Lord, I thank you for letting me see all the sights of New York. And I thank You most of all that I didn't see a thing that I wanted!"

Blessed is the man who can sit loose to the charms of this old world, independent of them because he doesn't want them.
