"This is my Father's World"

While a pastor in Lockport NY, Dr. Maltbie D. Babcock was in the habit of taking morning walks to the top of a hill north of town where he had a full view of Lake Ontario and the surrounding country. He was characterized by his frequent expression, "I'm going out to see my Father's world."

However, as one writer has noted, "This hymn is more than a mere outburst of song about nature, but rather a seasoned appreciation, beautifully worded, of unflinching trust in the ways and judgments of God. In the hymn Babcock portrays the message of God presence, God's personality, God's power, God's Purpose.
