* There are about 6,300,000,000 people on earth right now. The world could be reached in 34 steps if God's people would be obedient to the Great Commission. If each one would reach and disciple another one, then that one did the same, we would get the job done!

God's plan is perfect. We need to do it God's way. The Great Commission will always be the best plan to reach the world. It will work anywhere God's people work it.
