The Doctrine of the Rapture Converts a Young Man

A Christian doctor in London wanted to make his page boy aware of his soul's need of salvation. One night the doctor explained to him that "the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout" (1 Thessalonians 4:16). He ended the recital by saying, "When the Lord comes, you may have my home, John." The boy was surprised. "And my car." John was more surprised. "And my furniture, and my money." The boy could only gasp, "Thanks!"

Alone in bed, later that night, he began to think. "If the doctor goes to heaven, what will I do with his house and car and all the rest? Where will I be?"

He woke up the doctor and explained his problem, and before morning he was also ready.

"Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left. Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left. Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come." (Matthew 24:40-42).
