I Met My Master

"I had walked life's pathway with easy tread,
Had followed where comfort and pleasure led,
And then it chanced in a quiet place,
I met my Master face to face.

"I had built my castles and built them high,
With towers that pierced the blue of the sky.
I had sworn to rule with an iron mace,
When I met my Master face to face.

"I ment Him and knew Him and blushed to see
That His eyes, full of sorrow, were fixed on me,
And I faltered and fell at His feet that day,
While my castles melted and vanished away.

"Melted and vanished, but in their place
I saw naught else but my Master's face;
And I cried aloud, 'O make me meet
To follow the marks of Thy pierced feet.'

"My Thought is now for the souls of men.
I've lost my life to find it again,
E'er since alone in that holy place
I met my Master face to face."
