From the Floor: "Hurrah"

Our Homiletics professor had been impressing upon us the value of capturing our audience with the first sentence in a sermon. I had prepared a sort of folksy, intimate kind of talk for the following Sunday, and to start it off in proper fashion, I leaned impressively out over the pulpit a few seconds, and then said: "My dear friends, I am not going to preach a sermon this morning..." And before I got the next phrase started, a small boy in the front seat threw up his hands and shouted: "Hurrah."

Pastor Emerson J. Sanderson

"Most people think of the church as a drama, with the minister as the chief actor, God as the prompter, and the laity as the critic. What is actually the case is that the congregation is the chief actor, the minister is the prompter, and God is the critic."

James Kennedy
