Something in Heaven

There is something in Heaven that man put there.
Can the hand of man touch a place so fair,
That is filled with the depth and the breadth and the height
Of the glory of God? Where there is no night,
But choirs of the angles forever rejoice
In the glory of God? At the sound of His voice
The music of circling spheres is stilled
And all the wide ranges of Heaven are filled
With wondering worship and awe! And yet -
Help us Lord, that we never forget -
There is something in Heaven that man put there,
(Our shame, but forever His glory who bare
Our offences). Behold that the mercy seat,
The scars in His hands and His side and His feet!

- Martha Snell Nicholson

Abraham Lincoln's birthday is this Thursday, February 12.

Here's some information from or about him:

I can see how it might be possible for a man to look down upon the earth and be an atheist, but I cannot conceive how he could look up into the heaven and say there is no God. - Abraham Lincoln

As the body of Abraham Lincoln, on the long, sad way to the place of burial, passed a certain point, a black mother gathered up her child, held him aloft and said, "Take a long look, Sonny. He died for you!" So may we, looking at the Cross, take a long, long look and remember that Christ died there for us.

"We have forgotten God. We have forgotten the gracious hand which preserved us in peace and enriched and strengthened us; and we have vainly imagined that all things were produced by some superior wisdom and virtue of our own. Intoxicated with unbroken success, we have become too self-sufficient to feel the necessity of redeeming and preserving grace, too proud to pray to the God that made us" - Abraham Lincoln

Two Most Costly Drinks

On the last day of Lincoln's life, the great emancipator said: "We have cleared up a colossal job. Slavery is abolished. After reconstruction the next great question will be the overthrow and suppression of the legalized liquor traffic."

That evening, Mr. Booth stopped in a saloon, filled himself with liquor to nerve himself for his planned tragedy. That night Lincoln's body guard left the theater for a drink at the same saloon. While he was away, Booth shot Lincoln. Those two drinks were the most costly drinks in American history.

This April our choir and orchestra will again join with Old Time Baptist to present the Ron Hamilton cantata "The Centurion".

Musicians and singers (SATB) are needed, and practices begin soon! See Dan Priore or Rebekah Kohl for more information or a practice schedule
