Theme Verse for 2010

"That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God;" Colossians 1:10

February Events

22, Monday-Pastor and Leslie on vacation till March 4th.

26, Friday-Newsletter Day, 11am

28, Sunday-Richard Rawls to speak all day.

Church Needs

The church is looking for old instruments for people to learn to play. Do you have any laying around? Flutes, clarinets, folk guitars, violins, trumpets, tubas ☺, violas, saxophones, etc.

Also, we could use a lawn mower tractor for the charity house, and an electric lift chair for a disabled church member's home.

Marriage Can Be Complex

Exhibit A

At New Philadelphia, Ohio, a double wedding was announced. A nineteen-year-old boy was to marry a sixteen-year-old girl. His seventeen-year-old sister was to wed the father of his bride.

I don't know if that confuses you as much as it does me, but the upshot of it would be that the sister would become her brother's mother-in-law, and the brother of the sister would become his father-in-law's brother-in-law. And his bride would become her father's sister-in-law. And their children would be first cousins of the sister-in-law's mother-in-law.

Exhibit B

Aberdeen, South Dakota, Virgil Schense became his father's brother-in-law and the uncle of his three brothers and sisters. His three sisters became nieces of his wife and also her sisters-in-law. His wife became her sister's daughter-in-law's sister-in-law and also her husband's aunt.

Now how did things get that way? In case you can't figure it out, here's what happened. Virgil Schense, son of his father's first wife, married the sister of his father's second wife. —Lowell Thomas
