The goal of our life should not be to find joy in marriage, but to bring more love and truth into the world. We marry to assist each other in this task. The most selfish and hateful life of all is that of two beings who unite in order to enjoy life. The highest calling is that of the man who has dedicated his life to serving God and doing good, and who unites with a woman in order to further that purpose."

- Leo Tolstoy, in a letter to his son

Pastor Kohl's note: This is one of the greatest quotes I've ever heard on the purpose of marriage. Even though I don't agree with much Leo Tolstoy did or said, this is worth quoting.

Help for Husbands - Wrap up!
Tonight from 5:30-6:00pm

"Treat your wife like a (good) thing!" Proverbs 18:22

Pastor Kohl will review and then finish the course.

"... husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge..." 1 Peter 3:7

Hours in Church	100	1.1%
Hours in School	1200	13.7%
Hours at Home	7460	85.2%

Moms and Dads, by far you have the greatest potential of influence on your children. Have a Christian Home. Use this time wisely.

"... the glory of children are their fathers." Proverbs 17:6

Defining Loving-kindness

A mother asked her six-year-old boy what loving-kindness meant. "Well," he said, "when I asked you for a piece of bread and butter, and you give it to me, that's kindness. But when you put jam on it, that's loving-kindness."

On Marriage: "Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the days of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity: for that is thy portion in this life, and in thy labour which thou takest under the sun." Ecclesiastes 9:9
