TREASURING BIBLE READING

A poor prisoner, confined in a dungeon, had no light except for a few moments when food was brought to him. He used those moments to read the bible, saying that he could find his mouth in the dark, whereas he could not read in the dark.

Douglas MacArthur: "Believe me, sir, never a night goes by, be I ever so tired, but I read the Word of God before I go to bed."

John Quincy Adams: "So great is my veneration of the Bible, that the earlier my children begin to read it the more confident will be my hope that they will prove useful citizens of their society."

George Muller says: "The first three years after my conversion I neglected the Word of God. Since then I have read the Bible through 100 tomes, and each time with increasing delight. When I begin it afresh, it always seems like a new book to me. I look upon it as a lost day when I have not had a good time over the Word of God."

Augustine says, that, after his conversion, he ceased to relish even Cicero, his former favorite author, and that the Scriptures were his pure delight. Spent a greater part of his time in reading the Scriptures, and committed large portions of them to memory.

WHO WAS JESUS?

No one recognized religious leader - as Moses, Buddha, Confucius, Mohammed - ever claimed to be God. Jesus is the only person who has ever convinced a great portion of the world that He is God.

This claim can either be true or false. If false, Jesus either knew His claims were false and He lied, or He was deluded and a lunatic.

If Jesus knowingly lied, he was the world's greatest hypocrite and a charlatan of the worst kind. He would also be the greatest fool, for what person would die for a lie?

If Jesus was deluded, how could His precepts help so many people for so long a time? His critics and enemies had nothing but the highest accolades on His character.

The philosopher John Stuart Mill called him a 'preeminent genius' and "probably the greatest moral reformer and martyr who ever existed on earth, the ideal representative and guise of humanity.

There is no other choice. Either Jesus is a liar, a lunatic, or He is your Lord.
