The Empty Tomb

"Have you noticed that the references to the empty tomb all come in the gospels, which were written to give the Christian community the facts they wanted to know?" In the public preaching to those who were not believers, as recorded in the Acts of the Apostles, there is an enormous emphasis on the fact of the resurrection, but not a single reference to the empty tomb. Now, why? To me there is only one answer: there was no point in arguing about the empty tomb. Everyone, friend and opponent, knew that it was empty. The only questions worth arguing about were why it was empty and what its emptiness proved."

JND Anderson, lawyer and professor of oriental law at the university of London

"The emptiness of the grave is acknowledged by opponents as well as affirmed by disciples. The narrative of the guards attempts to account for the fact as a fraudulent transaction (Matthew 28:11-15). 'But this Jewish accusation against the Apostles takes for granted that the grave was empty. What was needed was an explanation.' ... This acknowledged by the Jews that the grave was vacated."

Three Crosses

Three crosses on a lonely hill,
And thief on either side,
And, in between, the Son of God...
How wide the gulf- how wide!

Yet one their spanned it with the words,
"Oh Lord, remember me"
The other scoffed and turned aside
To a lost eternity.

Forsaken is the hilltop now,
And all the crosses gone,
But in believing hearts of men
The center cross lives on.

And still, as when these sentinels
First met the earth's wondering view,
The presence of the Lord divides - Upon which side are you?

There will be a baptism
service next Sunday, April 27 after the 11am service.

Talk to Pastor Kohl this week if you have been saved and need to be scripturally baptized. He would be glad to discuss this ordinance with you.

Evangelist Phil Clayton, at the Chapel Thursday at 7pm

Brother Phil is passing through the area and Pastor has asked him to speak. He was a real blessing to us recently.

The Ladies Tea will be Saturday,
May 3 from 1-3pm at the Evans Chapel. More details to come. Guests are welcome.
