"Surely those who know the great passionate heart of Jehovah must deny their own loves to share in the expression of His. Consider the call from the throne above, 'Go ye,' and from round about, 'Come over and help us,' and even the call from the damned souls below, 'Send Lazarus to my brothers, that the come not to this place.' Impelled, then, by these voices, I dare not stay home while Quichuas perish. So what if the well-fed church in the homeland needs stirring? They have the Scriptures, Moses and the Prophets, and a whole lot more. Their condemnation is written on their bank books and in the dust on their Bible covers. American believers have sold their lives to the service of Mammon, and God has His rightful way of dealing with those who succumb to the spirit of Laodicea." - Jim Elliot

Pastor's Note: Jim was one of five missionaries martyred by the Auca Indians. He was 29 years old. The others were Nate Saint, Ed McCully, Roger Youderiam and Pete Fleming. Some of their wives went back to the tribe that killed their husbands, and led them to Christ. Elliot's story is written in the books, "Through Gates of Splendor" and "Shadow of the Almighty."

Jim's most famous quote is "He is no fool who gives what he cannot keep to gain what he cannot lose."

Contenders for our Country

SIGNERS OF THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

Signer #11: Samuel Huntington (1731-1796)
Connecticut. Age at signing: 45
Married: Martha (2 children, one became the governor of Ohio)

Occupation: Lawyer

Quotes & Notes:

Governor Huntington lived the life of the impeccable and sincere Christian, and those who knew him most intimately, loved him the most affectionately. He was a thoughtful man, and talked but little - the expression of his mind and heart was put forth in his actions. Hence as a devoted Christian and a true patriot, he never swerved from duty, or looked back after he had placed his hand to the work.

He was the friend of order and of religion, a member of the Christian church, and punctual in the devotions of the family... For many years a professor of religion, Mr Huntington appeared to enjoy to great satisfaction both in the doctrines and ordinances of the gospel; a constant attendant upon public worship, 'he was occasionally the people's mouth to God, when destitute of preaching.' As a professor of Christianity, and a supporter of its institutions, he was exemplary and devout: he manifested an unshaken faith in its doctrines, amid the distress of declining life, until debility of mind and body, produced by his last illness, rendered him incapable of social intercourse.
