Mothers Make Preachers

When young Matthew Simpson tremblingly broke the news to his widowed mother that he felt called to preach, which would necessitate his leaving the home, she exclaimed with tears of joy: " Oh, my son, I have prayed for this hour every day since you were born. At that time, we dedicated you to the Christian ministry."

G. Campbell Morgan says:" My dedication to the preaching of the Word was maternal. Mother never told it to the baby or the boy, but waited. When but eight years old I preached to my little sister and to her dolls arrayed in orderly form before me. My sermons were Bible stories which I had first heard from my mother."

Notes: Matthew Simpson became a great Methodist preacher from 1852 to 1884. He became a friend and advisor to Presidents Lincoln and Johnson. G. Campbell Morgan preached his first sermon at 13 years of age and preached for 69 years in England and America. He pastored 5 churches which each grew dramatically. He also wrote 60 books, and studied only the Bible for 7 years. Ripley's Believe it Or Not states that Morgan memorized the entire Bible. Way to go moms!
