A Pastor's "Wages"

The three sons of a lawyer, a doctor, and a minister, respectively, were talking about how much money their fathers made.

The lawyer's son said, "My father goes into court on a case and often comes home with as much as fifteen hundred dollars."

The doctor's son said, "My father performs a operation and earns as much as two thousand dollars for it."

The minister's son, determined not to be outdone, said, "That's nothing. My father preaches for just fifteen minutes on Sunday morning and it takes four men to carry the money."

Be On Your Knees

It is related that on one occasion a minister, passing along the country, came upon a poor workman upon his knees breaking stones for use in making the road.
"My friend," said the minister, "I wish I could break men's hearts as you break those rocks."
"Ah, sir," replied the laborer, "you could if you spent as much time upon your knees as I do."
