Thank You

I would like to thank all who made my 60th Birthday the most special one I ever had. Falling on Sunday this year I received many greetings, cards, gifts and well wishes in the morning and evening services.

The 5:30 pm Smorgasbord dinner was amazing and the gluten-free food and cake was great for me.

I don't know what to say about the 6:30 pm service! It was the most unusual church service I was ever in. I felt honored and humbled by all that was put into it. With God's help, I hope I can live up to the many nice things that were said about me. Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

- Pastor Kohl

March Events

March 12, Sunday

Saturday night turn your clocks ahead 1 hour because Daylight Savings Time begins! We are gonna lose an hour of sleep :(

March 13, Monday

Actual 34th Anniversary of the Church (celebrated on June 4th)

March 20, Monday - Spring begins!

By Grace

Grace is both the origin and means of our eternal salvation – by grace we are saved. It is by grace that we are justified and redeemed. Through grace we have access to God, and by grace we stand. Grace is the sustaining fuel and the driving motivation through the entirety of our Christian lives. We must grow in grace. We must be strong in grace and our speech should be seasoned with grace.

Many churches with sound doctrine have stopped growing in grace, and without growth in grace nothing else grows. Some 6,000 churches in the USA closed last year for a lack of grace and truth; another 10,000 churches are expected to close in 2017.

Will you allow your spiritual heart to slowly diminish and inch toward spiritual apathy, or will you allow the water of the Word and the control of God's Spirit to bring growth by grace once more?

- Dr. Paul Chappell

After hearing a sermon on stewardship a boy asked his mom and dad on the way home, "So did you give cheerfully or tearfully?"
