The Great Need of the Holy Spirit

If we do not have the Spirit of God, it were better to shut the churches, nail up the doors, to put a black cross on them, and say, "God have mercy on us!"

If you ministers have not the Spirit of God, you had better not preach, and you people had better stay at home.

I think I speak not too strongly when I say that a church in the land without the Spirit of God is rather a curse than a blessing.

If you have not the Spirit of God, Christian worker, remember that you stand in somebody else's way; you are as a tree bearing no fruit standing where another fruitful tree might grow.

This is solemn work; the Holy Spirit or nothing, and worse than nothing. Death and condemnation to a church that is not yearning after the Spirit, and crying and groaning until the Spirit has wrought mightily in her midst.

He is here; He has never gone back since He descended at Pentecost. He is often grieved and vexed, for He is peculiarly jealous and sensitive, and the one sin never forgiven has to do with His blessed person; therefore let us be very tender towards Him, walk humbly before Him.

Wait on Him very earnestly, and resolve that there should be nothing knowingly continued which should prevent Him dwelling in us, and being with us henceforth and forever.

Brethren, peace be unto you and your spirit! -Charles Spurgeon

Wanamaker's Bible

When he had become one of the country's greatest merchants, John Wanamaker (1838-1922) once said, "In my lifetime, I have made many purchases. I have bought things which have cost me thousands of dollars. But the greatest purchase I ever made was when I was a boy twelve years old. I bought a Bible for two dollars and fifty cents. That was my greatest purchase, for that Bible made me what I am today."
