One Year To Live

Years ago, the Baltimore Sun held a contest, and the following poem received a prize for the best answer to the question, "What would you do if you had one more year to live?"

If I had but one year to live;

One year to help; one year to give;
One year to love; one year to bless;
One year of better things to stress;

One year to sing; one year to smile;
To brighten earth a little while;
One year to sing my Maker's praise;
One year to fill with work my days;

One year to strive for a reward
When I should stand before my Lord
I think that I would spend each day,
In just the very self-same way

That I do now, for from afar
The call may come across the bar
At any time, and I must be Prepared to meet eternity.

So if I have a year to live,
Or just one day in which to give
A pleasant smile, a helping hand,
A mind that tried to understand,
A fellow-creature when in need;
'Tis one with me - I take no heed.
But try to live each day He sends
To serve my gracious Master's ends.
