Philippians 4: 11-12

<sup>11</sup> Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.
<sup>12</sup> I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

Check the boxes for each day that you say this week's memory verses:

In memory of
Bettie Robison
 (1923-2018)

"Miss Robison" went home to be with the Lord last Sunday at the age of 95. Bettie was never married. She lived successfully for the Lord as a single person.

She was the piano player for the Faith Bible Baptist Church for 20 years, playing in Sunday School, morning and evening services, and Wednesday evenings. She accompanied our first 10 Cantatas, as well as most special music and choir. She was also faithful to play piano in Nursing Home ministry, and Seniors Fellowship.

Bettie donated her grand piano to the Gowanda Nursing Home and the Knabe grand piano (one of the best names in the world) to our church – the grand piano on the platform today! Think of her and thank God for her as you listen to the piano.

Thank you to those who visited her in the nursing home and a special "thank you" to Brother Dexter Nowak who cared for her unceasingly all of these years. Hebrews 6:10.

A pastor wrote to a wealthy businessman asking for a gift for a missionary. A prompt refusal came back with this line: "As far as I can see, this Christian business is one continuous give, give, give".

The Pastor wrote in reply, "I wish to thank you for the best definition of the Christian life that I have yet heard."
