Summer Challenge: Find one or two people to team up with, and start your own visitation program. See table in Hemlock foyer for one option.

Don't Forget!

We hear about a mother's love
 In story and in song,
 How staunch it is thru trial and storm,
 How tender and how strong,
 How sweet and pure and beautiful;
 And every word is true.
 But what about a father's love?
 That claims some notice, too.
 It's dad who bends his aching back
 And bows his graying head
 To bear the burdens of the day
 And earn the children's bread.
 And both must work, both must plant
 And do their equal share
 To rear the little ones the Lord
 Has trusted to their care.
 All honor to the mother's love;
 The universe it fills.
 But when you praise it, don't forget
 That father pays the bills.

If I had spent time alone with God
 rather than preaching and planning on how I was going to change the world, I would be a very different man. - Leonard Ravenhill

Vacation Bible School is August 12-15, 6pm-8:30 nightly. Teen and adult help needed; please fill out a form in the Hemlock foyer, and give it to Rebekah Tablante.

A tired farmer sat under a walnut tree, looking at his pumpkin vines. He said to himself, "God is foolish to put heavy pumpkins on a frail vine, so it has to lie on the ground, then put small walnuts on a tree with branches that can hold a man."

Just then a breeze dislodged a walnut, and it fell on the critic's head. The old man rubbed his head ruefully and said, "Good thing it wasn't a pumpkin up there."

All instrumentalists, take this verse to heart: "It came even to pass, as the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the Lord; and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of musick, and praised the Lord, saying, For he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever: that then the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of the Lord;" (2 Chronicles 5:13)
