Thots:

- You can often judge a man's ambition by whether he hates his alarm clock or considers it his best friend.
- A man would do nothing if he waited until he could do it so well that one could find no fault with what was done.
- An active blade never rusts.
- If you want work well done, select a busy man - the other kind has no time.
- An old southern Christian gentleman once told his friends, "Unless a man is in trouble, his prayers ain't got no suction."
- Thinking is the hardest work there is, which is the probable reason so few engage in it. - Henry Ford

40 Ways to Use Gospel Tracts
 (Part 2 of 4):

Here are some ideas of how you can put these "silent missionaries" to work.

11. Leave in motel room drawers, telephone books, etc.
12. Include in bills paid by mail (as long as you are not late!)
13. Hand out to store employees, check-out clerks, valets, etc.
14. Stick one in a book you are donating or lending.
15. Place with other reading materials in waiting rooms.
16. Place in brochure racks in stores and other public places – with permission of course.
17. Enclose with letters to prisoners, pen-pals, etc.
18. Leave with a (generous) tip in restaurants.
19. Give to hospital and nursing home patients while visiting.
20. Hand out at zoos, picnic areas, and beaches.
