"ANSWERS"

October's Memory Verse:

"It is the glory of God to conceal a thing: but the honour of kings is to search out a matter." (Proverbs 25:2)

Guys vs. Gals
 Oct. Attendance Contest

Guys - 82 Gals - 96

One point was awarded for each person present in Sunday School at 10am.

Charles Spurgeon's commentary on Hosea 2:7

"And she shall follow after her lovers; But she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will go and return to my first husband; for then was it better with me than now"

What some do, others may do. If one man falls, another may. If one professor turned out to be a hypocrite, so may another. If one minister reels from the pinnacle of honor and is dashed on the rock beneath, so may another.

Age and habit are no security against apostasy. The continual keeping and anointing of the Holy Spirit is essential. Let us watch against the beginnings of backsliding. Let us take care of the little sins; let us watch against coldness of heart.

No one backslides all at once. Few people who profess to be saints become outward sinners in one step; it is usually by little and by little.

If our love of Christ has grown cold, we need to not stay in the state of danger but pray to the Master to inflame our hearts again.

If any of us have in any respect fallen from our first love - if that old enthusiasm that was in us has disappeared - pray God to give it back.

If any of us are not bearing such fruit for God as we used to, we should be suspicious of ourselves. Carnal security may be the heaven of fools, but it is the ruin of believers.
