 (Prov. 29:18a)*

A Mother's Prayer

Lord, give me patience when wee hands tug at me with their demands.
 Give me gentle and smiling eyes; keep my lips from hasty replies.
 Let not weariness, confusion, or noise obscure my vision of life's fleeting joys.
 So when, in years to come, my house is still – no bitter memories its rooms may fill.

Aim in Preaching

A sailor just off to a whaling expedition asked where he could hear a good sermon.
 On his return from the church his friend asked him, "How did you like the sermon?"
 "Not much, it was like a ship leaving for whale fishing; everything shipshape; anchors, cordage, sails and provisions all right - but there were no harpoons on board."

Common Sense

The story is told of a certain Christian professor who, in welcoming the new students for the year, said:
 "If you lack education, WE are here to give it to you. If you lack inspiration, GOD is here to give it to you. But if you lack common sense, neither God nor man can help you."

Calling the Signals

The organist wanted to make an impression on the visiting minister with her musical accomplishment.
 She wrote a note to the old sexton who had been a little slack in his work of pumping enough air for the organ, and handed it to him just before the service started.
 But, making a natural mistake, the sexton passed the note to the visiting preacher who opened it and read: "Keep blowing away until I give the signal to stop."
