Learning to Pray

Prayer is a trade to be learned. We must be apprentices and serve our time at it. Painstaking care, much thought, practice and labor are required to be a skillful tradesman in praying. Practice in this, as well as in all other trades, makes perfect.

- E.M. Bounds (1835-1913)

Pastor Kohl's Note: I would recommend you read anything written by E. M. Bounds on prayer.

Too Busy To Love

A father and his young daughter were great friends and much in each other's company. The father noted a change in his daughter. If he went for a walk, she excused herself from going. He grieved about it, but could not understand. When his birthday came, she presented him with a pair of exquisitely worked slippers, saying, "I have made them for you." Then he understood what had been the matter for the past three months, and he said, "My darling, I like these slippers very much, but next time buy the slippers and let me have you all the days. I would rather have my child than anything she can make for me."

Some of us are so busy for the Lord that He cannot get much of us. To us He would say, "I know your works, your labor, your patience, but I miss the first love."

- G. Campbell Morgan

Dear Parents of Babies

Our nursery has resumed! Please note that we are taking the temperature of workers, babies, and drop-off parent as well as taking extra precaution with cleaning. We also have a wellness sign-in for both parents and babies.

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation!

Dear Parents of Ages 2-12

2020 Theme Prayer:

Lead me to some soul today,
 O teach me, Lord, just what to say;
 Friends of mine are lost in sin,
 and cannot find their way.
 Few there are who seem to care,
 and few there are who pray;
 Melt my heart and fill my life -
 give me one soul today!

- William Houghton

Biblical love is like a many-faceted diamond. Some of the facets that are described in Scripture include:

- From 1 Corinthians 13:
- 4. Love is contentment - v.4 - no envy of others or what they have. Satisfaction.
 - 5. Love is humble - v.4 - it does not promote self or boast or brag.
 - 6. Love is real - v.4 - does not pretend. Is not fake or deceptive.
