30 Facets of Love

Biblical love is like a many-faceted diamond. Some of the facets that are described in Scripture include:

- From 1 Corinthians 13:
- 7. Love is pure – v.5 – there is nothing improper or perverted in love.
- 8. Love is unselfish – v.5 – not self-centered. Living for the benefit of others.
- 9. Love is peaceful – v.5 – not angered easily.

 Comments on Acts 8:8

"And there was great joy in that city."

Verse 5 tells us, "Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them," and "great joy" was the result. He had a speedy and remarkable success. He scarcely opened his mouth without gaining attention and had not long proclaimed his message before people willingly received it and many were converted to Christ and had "great joy".

What was the explanation of this wonderful blessing? Something had been done years before to prepare the way for Philip. A weary man had come to that region who sat on the well at Sychar and spoke to Samaria's daughter concerning the living water (John 4:5). And she had heard, believed, and been saved. And she, fallen woman as she had been, had gone back to the city to tell the people she had met the Messiah.

In all probability the work done by our Lord at Sychar had affected the whole district to that, when Philip went to the city of Samaria, he found there a people prepared of the Lord. Jesus sowed the seed: Philip came and reaped the harvest. No good work for God is ever lost. If you have labored in a village or town and have seen no great success, someone else may see it.
