What is the Book of I Kings about?

First Kings deals especially with the death of David; the attempted plot and failure of Adonijah; the reign of the wise and famous Solomon; the building and dedication of the temple; the death of Solomon; the division of the kingdom under Rehoboam and Jeroboam; and the history of the two kingdoms to the time of the reigns of Jehoram over Judah, and Ahaziah over Israel, in Samaria. First Kings also includes the miracles and ministry of Elijah.

How To Split Your Church

- 1) Focus only on your desires. Make your own personal preferences and group convictions on trivial matters as important as biblical absolutes.
- 2) Listen to every criticism you hear. False gossip and rumors can be effective.
- 3) Focus on your pastor's weaknesses, not his strengths. Target his imperfections and shortcomings for constant criticism to undermine morale.
- 4) Speak the truth or practice love, but never combine the two. The balance between them is what prevents conflict.
- 5) Store grievances for future use. The longer people harbor resentments against each other, the more powerful the resentments become.
- 6) Forgive only those who ask you to do so, and only if they deserve it. Placing conditions on your forgiveness is a surefire way to kill love between believers.
- 7) Hide your own sins behind harsh attitudes. Denounce others for sins you secretly struggle with.
- 8) Use prayer to unite malcontents and spread inappropriate information. Pray over requests that share information that is extremely personal, cannot be verified, or leave a questionable impression.
- 9) Do whatever you have to do to win. Twist Scripture out of context to justify your views and methods.
- 10) Tell others that you are on a mission for God. Avoid accountability and verification to help you dissolve Christian unity.
