What is the Book of Joel about?

The prophet Joel lived in the 9th century BC, when Elisha also was living. Joel was given a very clear vision of the state of the world at the time when the Lord Jesus Christ will return to earth to punish sin and set up His kingdom. Joel and other prophets often referred to that future time as "the Day of the Lord," and the Day of the Lord is the subject of his book.

The prophet used an event of his own time, the great plague of locusts, to illustrate the great armies that will one-day swarm over Palestine and lay waste the land. We should observe that whenever God prophesies of judgement, He always gives also a promise of blessing that will come to His people after the trouble has done its necessary work in them. This we shall see clearly in this prophecy.

Just Call On Washington
 One day during the Revolutionary war, George Washington rode up to a group of soldiers trying to raise a beam to a high position. Their corporal stood to the side shouting words of encouragement, but to no avail. Washington asked him why he did not join in and help.

The corporal replied quickly, "Do you realize that I am the corporal?"
 Washington very politely replied, "I beg your pardon, Mr. Corporal, I did not realize it."
 Washington dismounted his horse and went to work with the soldiers until the beam was in place. Wiping the perspiration from his face, he said, "Should you need help again, call on Washington, your commander-in-chief, and I will come."

Ye call me Master and obey me not,
 Ye call me Light and seek me not,
 Ye call me Way and walk me not,
 Ye call me Life and desire me not,
 Ye call me Wise and follow me not,
 Ye call me Fair and love me not,
 Ye call me Rich and ask me not,
 Ye call me Eternal and seek me not,
 Ye call me Gracious and trust me not,
 Ye call me Noble and serve me not,
 Ye call me Mighty and honor me not,
 Ye call me Just and fear me not,
 If I condemn ye, blame me not.
