WHAT IS THE BOOK OF MICAH ABOUT

Micah was written by the prophet who bore that name. His name means Who is like the Lord? He was called the Morasthite because his home was in Moresheth-gath. He prophesied while Jothan, Ahaz, and Hezekiah were kings over Judah, and Pekahiah, Pekah, and Hoshea were kings over Israel.

He lived in the time of Isaiah the prophet and his message was similar because the moral need of the people was the same. The great revival under Hezekiah was a result of the ministry of this prophet (compare Jeremiah 26:17-19).

PSALM 65:1 COMMENTARY

"Praise waiteth for thee, O God, in Sion."

Whatever else we do, let us be sure our souls magnify the Lord and abhor the idea of self-glorification. If the Lord has blessed us, let us shake off any idea of ascribing praise to ourselves, as Paul shook off the viper from his hand.

We are mere vanity and to us belongs shame. This is our possession—the only inheritance our fathers have left to us. What are we that the Lord should bless us?

Did I bring a soul to Christ the other day? I bless the Holy Spirit who helped me by his power to do so divine a deed. Did I bear bold testimony for the truth but yesterday? I bless him who is the faithful and true witness, that at his feet I learned to be true and by his Spirit was enabled to be brave.

With vehemence we put down the idea of honoring ourselves. Again and again we put away the usurper's crown that Satan offers us.

- Charles Spurgeon

SENIORS DINNERS

These are scheduled to start up again next month at 10:30am!

Anyone 55+ welcome, even if they don't attend church regularly.

Come for fellowship, singing, preaching, and a scrumptious home-cooked meal.

Three dinners left this year: Sept. 2, Oct. 7, and Nov. 4.

I believe that if there is one thing which pierces the Master's heart with unutterable grief, it is not the world's iniquity, but the Church's indifference

- F. B. Meyer
