How William Booth Gave All

When General Booth was asked what had been the secret of his success, he replied "...from the day I got the poor of London on my heart and a vision of what Jesus Christ would do for them, I made up my mind that God should have all of William Booth. If anything has been achieved, it is because God has had all the adoration of my heart, all the power of my will, and all the influence of my life."

William Booth was founder and director of the Salvation Army from 1865-1912. It was a soul-saving ministry at first. Over 600 of his preachers were jailed by 1884 because of violent opposition to the gospel in London. Yet the ministry grew to 16,000 officers in 58 countries. Booth preached 60,000 sermons. At his funeral service 40,000 people attended. 150,000 people filed by his casket. To some extent the works of the Salvation Army continues to this day.

Charles Spurgeon on Hebrews 11:26

"Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompense of the reward."

Pleasures are certainly better than afflictions, according to any ordinary judgement. But Moses came to this conclusion: although affliction might be God's worst, it was better than the pleasure of sin, which is evil's best.

Moses counted reproach to be better than the treasures of Egypt. God's fast is better than Egypt's feast. We should view life as Moses did, in connection with the reward and commence a life for God and holiness.

A Lesson in Giving

Nannie had a bright silver dollar given to her. She asked her father to change it into dimes.

"What is that for, dear?" he asked.

"So that I can get the Lord's part out of it."

And when she got it into smaller coins, she laid out one of the ten.

"There, I will keep that until Sunday."

When Sunday came, she went to the offering box in the church vestibule and dropped in two dimes.

"Why," said her father, "I thought you gave one-tenth to the Lord."

"One-tenth belongs to Him, and I can't give Him what is His own; so if I give Him anything, I have to give Him what is mine."
