Jeanne Guyon (1648-1717) was harshly treated by the Catholic Church after her conversion to Christ at age 20. Considered a heretic, she was first confined to a convent, and than to a prison cell in Vincennes, France. There she wrote:

Strong are the walls around me
 that hold me all the day;
 But they who thus have bound me
 cannot keep God away.
 My very dungeon walls are dear,
 because the God I love is here.
 They know, who thus oppress me,
 'tis hard to be alone;
 But know not One can bless me
 who comes thru bars and stone.
 He made a dungeon darkness bright,
 and fills my bosom with delight.

Missionary of the Week
Walt & Peggy Silva
 in Uruguay

We have supported them since 1989

Thank You
 To all who helped at this year's Baptist Snow Camp. We hope you will reap eternal benefits from these exhausting efforts.

I went out to find a friend,
 But could not find one there;
 I went out to BE a friend,
 And friends were everywhere!
 - Anon.

"A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother." (Proverbs 18:24)

Snow Shoveling -
 All 5 fire exits of the church must be cleared for every church event. If you are here early please feel free to do so.

Fire Hydrants -
 We are responsible for two fire hydrants - one in front of the church, and the one at our west parking lot. This means 7 days a week. Please keep an eye on them.
