What is the Book of 2 Peter About?

The First Epistle was written especially to Christian Jews; the Second is addressed to all Christians: "them that have obtained like precious faith" (vs. 1). In his Second Epistle, Peter writes of:

The virtues, or good qualities, that every Christian should have; of his approaching death; of the transfiguration of the Lord Jesus Christ, which he had seen; and of the Scriptures, written by men inspired of God.

He warns Christians against false teachers, who will appear in the last days of this age. He urges believers not to make the mistake of unbelievers, who think that the Lord Jesus Christ is not coming back again, but encourages them, rather, to live holy lives and to look forward to the return of the Lord to the earth.

Missionary of the Week

Word for the World Office
 In Rossville, GA

We have supported them since 2010

"As A Father..."

"Like as a father pitieth his children, so the LORD pitieth them that fear him."

- Psalm 103:13 -

"For whom the LORD loveth he correcteth; even as a father the son in whom he delighteth."

- Proverbs 3:12 -

"As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children,"

- 1 Thessalonians 2:11 -

Blessed is the father who lets the LORD be his guiding hand, whose faith brings his family courage, whose wisdom comes from GOD, and whose children still stand and honor him.

Next Week:

The Origin of Father's Day

The first widely-promoted Father's Day celebration of modern America was held in Spokane, Washington on June 19, 1910.

Mrs. Sonora Dodd envisioned an event with special religious services and small gifts as well as loving greetings from children to their fathers. She brought up the matter with her pastor, and the idea made it's way to the mayor of the city and governor of the state. They endorsed her concept and issued proclamations in support.

Father's Day was slow to catch on. The idea of honoring fathers with a special day was actually reinvented independently in several other places, each locality thinking it was starting something new. ☺

In 1916 President Woodrow Wilson endorsed the idea and in 1924 Calvin Coolidge recommended national observance of the day "to impress upon fathers the full measure of their obligation" and strengthen intimate ties between fathers and children. (Source: www.christianity.com)
