New Sunday School Format

Begins next Sunday at 10am.
 All ages are encouraged to attend. All ages will be learning lessons on their own level, with some really great new curriculum we'll be using. Some of the classes and teachers will be shuffled around. Please be flexible and be humble. Nursery provided. Please pray for this endeavor and give it a good try.

Adversity - Our Friend?

Adversity is not simply a tool. It is God's most effective tool for the advancement of our spiritual lives. The circumstances and events that we see as setbacks are oftentimes the very things that launch us into periods of intense spiritual growth. Once we begin to understand this, and accept it as a spiritual fact of life, adversity becomes easier to bear.

A man testified in one of Mr. Moody's meetings: "I have been for five years on the Mount of Transfiguration." "How many souls did you lead to Christ last year?" was the sharp question that came from Mr. Moody in an instant. "Well I don't know," was the astonished reply. "Have you led any?" persisted Mr. Moody. "I don't know that I have," answered the man. "Well," said Mr. Moody, "We don't want that kind of mountaintop experience. When a men get so high that he can't reach down to save poor sinners, there is something wrong."

The Death of John Huss

When John Huss, a Bohemian martyr, was brought out to be burnt at the stake, they put on his head a triple crown of paper, with painted devils on it. On seeing it, he said, "My Lord, Jesus Christ, for my sake, wore a crown of thorns; why should I not then, for His sake, wear this light crown, be it ever so ignominious? Truly I will do it, and that willingly."

When it was set upon his head, the bishops said, "Now, we commend thy soul to the Devil." "But I," said Huss, lifting up his eyes to heaven, "do commend my spirit into Thy hands, O Lord Jesus Christ; to Thee I commend my spirit, which Thou hast redeemed."

When the wood was piled to Huss' neck, the Duke of Bavaria was officious enough to desire him to adjure. "No," said Huss, "I never preached any doctrine of an evil tendency; and what I taught with my lips I now seal with my blood."
