God Hates Sin

By Charles Spurgeon

God hates all evil, all injustice, all sin of every kind. He hates it! He is not indifferent to it or tolerant of it, but His whole being goes out in righteous indignation against it.

And He hates it, first, because He is infinitely pure. He hates it, too, because it is such an injury to us, His creatures. He hates it because it so grievously mars what He made.

Men and women, as God sees them, are rendered ugly through sin. God hates it, too, because it drives Him to do what He dislikes doing—His unexpected work of judgement.

Do we hate sin?

"Ye that love the LORD, hate evil:" - Psalm 97:10
