Someone Forgot

The ivy has covered
 The old country church,
 And the steps are crumbling down,
 For nobody worships the Lord anymore
 In the church at the edge of the town.

The bells in the steeple
 Don't ring anymore,
 At the altar there's none to pray;
 The shepherd is gone
 And the singers are still,
 And the sheep have all gone astray.

Someone forgot to tell of His love,
 Someone forgot to pray;
 And someone neglected to feed the sheep,
 Now they are gone astray.

Lord, send them a shepherd
 With heart full of love,
 Fill his eyes with tears for the lost;
 His life must be true
 And his words full of fire,
 Let him blaze with a fresh Pentecost.

Someone must go and tell of His love,
 Someone must go and pray;
 And someone must bring
 All the wand'ers home,
 Back to the narrow way.
