Christ's Choice

"Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me more than twelve legions of angels?"

- Matthew 26:53 -

A legion is a body of soldiers whose number varied at different times in history. In the time of Augustus, a legion consisted of 6,826 men (6,100 foot soldiers and 726 horsemen.) This was what the word was understood to be in Christ's Day.

Thus twelve legions of angels would be 81,912. He chose to die for us over their help.

Hearing Impaired Devices available for all services. See any usher.

Go thou in life's fair morning,
 Go in the bloom of thy youth:
 And buy for thine adorning,
 The precious pearl of truth:
 Secure this heavenly treasure,
 And bind it on thine heart,
 And let not earthly pleasure
 E'er cause it to depart.

Go, while the day-star shineth,
 Go, while thy heart is light;
 Go, ere thy strength declineth,
 While every sense is bright:
 Sell all thou hast, and buy it;
 'Tis worth all earthly things—
 Rubies, and gold, and diamonds,
 Scepters and crowns of kings.

Go, ere the clouds of sorrow
 Steal o'er the bloom of youth;
 Defer not till tomorrow,
 Go now, and buy the truth—
 Go, seek thy great Creator,
 Learn early to be wise;
 Go, place upon His altar
 A morning sacrifice.
